TO OUR PATRONS

It is the constant aim of the management of the Orpheum Circuit to present vaudeville without the use of a single offensive word, phrase or situation

The attaches of the house are not permitted to accept fees or gratuities of any kind. The price of admission covers all the advantages offered by the superior services of the Orpheum.

Patrons are requested to report to the house manager any inattention or incivility on the part of an attache of this theatre.

Physicians and others who may expect a summons are advised to leave their names and seat numbers with the box office clerk.

Tickets are required for children. Those in arms will not be admitted.

Patrons desiring to subscribe for regular seats for specific performances throughout the season may place their names on file at the box office, in which case the seats reserved will always be held for them.

Seats reserved by telephone will be held until 6 p.m. The ticket office is open daily from 10 a.m. to 9.30 p.m.

Inquiries regarding lost and found articles should be made at the box office.

Ladies are requested to remove their hats. Th retiring rooms are at right of foyer.

The men's smoking room is on the left of foyer.

Check rooms are in rear of both main floor and balcony.

F. E. WADGE,
Resident Manager

NOTICE—This theatre, under normal conditions, with every seat occupied, can be emptied in less than Three Minutes. LOOK AROUND NOW, choose the NEAREST EXIT to your seat, and in case of disturbance of any kind, to avoid danger of panic, WALK (do not run) to that exit.

YOU MUST HEAR

this month's wonderful hits.

A few of the following will convince you:

"That Certain Party" Fox Trot; "Five Foot Two Eyes of Blue" by Esther Walker; Sitting on Top of the World' as a Fox Trot, or by Al. Jolson; "Show Me the Way To Go Home," Wendall Hall; "Sleepy Time Gal," Foxt Trot or Violin Solo by Nick Lucas. The above are only a few from the best list ever released—is the verdict of everyone who has heard them. Come in after the show and let us prove it.
